Name _____ Period _____

Task 1.B
Creating a Comic Strip of Famous Religious Stories

Standard:

1. The students will be able to create a comic strip explaining and describing the start or spread of a major religion.

Task:

Many world religions have interesting stories about how they started or the prophets who spread the message of their God or gods. For this task you are creating a comic strip which tells the story about the start of one of the five major religions we are studying (Hinduism, Buddhism, Judaism, Christianity, or Islam). Your comic strip must include…

1. A title.
2. At least 6 different comic slides which tell the story. Each slide must contain a colored picture and dialogue.
3. A correct retelling of the story.
4. Each slide has one or more sentences explaining what the slide is depicting or representing.

Rubric:

Criteria	1	3	5	Multiply
Organization	Major themes of the story are missing and story is told out of order	Parts of the story are missing but is in logical order	Includes all parts of the story and is in logical order
Appropriate number of comic slides	1-2 slides in the comic	3-5 slides in the comic	Comic has 6 slides or more
Historical accuracy	Story is not historically accurate	Story is somewhat historically accurate	Story is historically accurate
Slides have a picture & dialogue	3 or more slides are missing pictures or dialogue	1-2 slides are missing pictures or dialogue	Each slide has a picture & dialogue

Total Points: ____ /20

THIS RUBRIC MUST BE TURNED IN WITH YOUR TASK
(1 point penalty if no rubric; 2 point penalty if late)